

We Blog the World Announces America Cross Country Tour

January 5, 2015 – San Francisco, CA – We Blog the World, an online luxury and adventure travel magazine that focuses on Transformative Travel and unique luxury experiences around the globe, announced that it will take a cross country tour in a Pontiac named Vinny, starting in New York City and ending in California over a month.

We Blog the World's cross country tour will be extensively recording the highlights of the trip on social media using hashtag #WBTWxAmerica. Gear will be packed to the brim, thanks to Yakima and their luggage and bike racks, photography enhanced thanks to Tiffen's polarized filters, skin to be protected thanks to UVSkinz and kept warm through Coleman gear. BuildaSign donated two signs to promote the tour which will be plastered on Vinny's doors from the east to the west coast.

The tour will cover West Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico, Arizona and finally California on a whirlwind travel agenda that will include nature hikes, mountain treks, restaurant and spa reviews, cultural activities, concerts and music experiences and historical sites.

"From learning and experiencing the Mississippi Delta Blues, bathing in the hot thermal waters that Thomas Jefferson frequented, hiking through Arkansas' National Parks, eating our way through Santa Fe and taking in the breathtaking views of the Arizona desert by helicopter and jeep to eating Texas steak, seeing the largest cattle site in Oklahoma and visiting the site where Country Music first began, we will explore the richest cultural and historical gems this country has to offer," said Renee Blodgett, founder of We Blog the World.
